

Read, Observe, Practice

Description

What's your #1 priority tomorrow?

For a man to write well, there are required three necessities: to read the best authors, observe the best speakers, and much exercise of his own style.
(Ben Jonson, 1640).

Catching up on my reading

Today (02 October), being a holiday here in India (and also a dry day) on the occasion of Mahatma Gandhi's birthday, I plan to do follow the above advise and catch up on my reading. And since it's a long book, I plan to continue reading it tomorrow also.

So my #1 priority tomorrow is to finish reading the book titled But First Champagne.

A modern guide on Champagne

Written by David White this book covers the rich history of Champagne as a wine region and also mentions details of leading producers of champagne, which is one of the best sparkling wines of the world.

Cheers !!
