

Real Estate and Wines

Description

What would you do if you lost all your possessions?

Honestly it would be a nightmare. Losing all possessions in a material world will surely be a harrowing experience and I shudder at the mere thought of it. But as humans we are resilient and built to cope with adverse situations.

In such a scenario, I would take a stock of things (ironical pun intended) and plan out how rebuild my possessions and get cracking with actions to do so.

Roti, Kapda Aur Makaan In English this paragraph heading reads as Food, Clothes and Shelter which are basic needs for survival. I would secure these by taking a loan of money from my close friends and family.

Next would be to secure a job so as to earn money. This might again be with help and referrals from friends and colleagues in the field of Real Estate or Wines or both. My ultimate aim would be to start something on my own like a consultancy.

Wine Educator Once things return to the normal, I would also endeavour to become a wine educator. On one had this would ensure an extra stream of income but more importantly it would be a means to pursue my passion of wines.
